East Central serves variety at production

ECCC

►Review

By Kay Culpepper

Assistant People editor

It's been said that variety is the spice of life.

The key word, variety, more than aptly applies to East Central Community College's Players Fall Dinner Theater.

For its first night performance, all involved made sure that audience in Mabry Cafeteria was treated to variety.

From the buffet meal, which included roast beef, shrimp, chicken, steamed vegetables and a variety of desserts, to the the modeling shows to the songs by the Collegians, the dinner theater guests were served entertainment.

The three short one-act plays, Boy Meets Family, The Monkey's Paw, and The Ladies in Waiting, offered comedy, drama and even a mixture of both, respectfully.

In Boy Meets Family, Lance, played by Brent Fountain, is forced to meet his future in-laws and deal with the separate personalities. However, he gets them mixed up in his efforts to try to impress them. Mr. Fountain played the part to the hilt and earned laughter when he repeated to all, "Hail to thee, blithe spirit."

Tara Vandevender, who portrayed Polly, handled the part of the coaching girlfriend well.

Other actors in the play included Jim Holder, Kay Vaughn, Kevin Hearn, Lovie Kirkland and Dawn Alexander.

After a 10-minute intermission, the scene was changed for the drama, The Monkey's Paw. The story relates the tale of an English sergeant-major who has a magical, but dangerous, monkey's paw. Upon visiting a nearby family, the officer tries to throw away the charm, but it is retrieved by Mr. White. Stacy Radigan and Derek Rogers are convincing as the grieving parents.

Others who round out the play are Stephanie Gainey, Jay Mathis and Brian Roland.

But the final production, The Ladies in Waiting, received the most laughter and could be called the most touching. The play, written by ECCC English instructor Ovid Vickers, tells the story of elderly women who live in a nursing home.

Getting the most laughter was Rosetta Howard, who played Aunt Pet — an aging woman with hearing problems. When asked if she wanted some juice, she answers angrily, "How can you say I'm loose?"

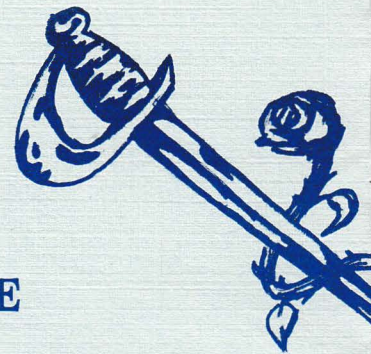

Tracy Weaver, who played Miss Pet, portrayed the woman as a nervous, yet somewhat calm, woman who was ready to go.

Others in The Ladies in Waiting were Jade French, Deanna McNair, Andy Hard, Sandra Collins, Pam Gilmer and Phillip Pope.

Like most first night performances, there were a few lines that were stumbled upon — but that should clear up with subsequent performances.

Director Bruce Peterson should be applauded for his work with this fall production. Also noted should be Cris Servis and Crew of ARA Slater Food Service.

The production continues through Wednesday with the buffet dinner beginning at 7 p.m.

THE 1988 FALL DINNER THEATRE

NOVEMBER 9-11, 1988

MABRY CAFETERIA
7:00 P.M.

The East Central Players are dedicating the 1988 Dinner Theater to Mr. Leonard Lee. Mr. Lee has served as Director of Food Services at East Central Community College for the past twenty-three years. From the beginning of the Dinner Theater, he has been responsible for the planning and preparation of the menu. The support and contributions made by Mr. Lee have added greatly to the success that the Dinner Theater has enjoyed.
